

Perinatal Management Plan for Neonate with Cardiac Disease

This care plan has been put together by the fetal cardiology and fetal medicine team, this should act as an alert but is not a substitute for reading the fetal cardiology and FMU reports

Referral from Fetal Management Unit St Mary's Hospital <input type="checkbox"/> Liverpool Women's Hospital <input type="checkbox"/>		Local Obstetric Unit
Name: NHS number: DOB:		EDD:
Prenatal Cardiac Diagnosis:		Extra cardiac anomalies detected? Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> Diagnosis:
Invasive testing performed? Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> Result normal? Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> Abnormal Result Details:		Test performed Microarray <input type="checkbox"/> WES R21 <input type="checkbox"/>
Antenatal Care		Other specialists involved in care
Intended place of delivery
Care during labour Neonatal team to be present at delivery Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>
Postnatal care		Baby to go to NICU/ LNU after delivery Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> Start low dose prostaglandin infusion Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>
Safeguarding concerns <input type="checkbox"/> Mental health concerns <input type="checkbox"/>	Postnatal cardiac review timescale Cardiology review in first 24 hours <input type="checkbox"/> Echo before discharge <input type="checkbox"/> Cardiology appt to be made prior to discharge <input type="checkbox"/> Refer to Cardiology at discharge for routine review <input type="checkbox"/>
If there are any queries regarding this plan, please call FMU for advice on the number
St Marys Hospital Tel 0161 276 6385 Email: fetalmedicine.orc@mft.nhs.uk		Liverpool Women's Hospital Tel 0151 702 4072 Email: lwft.fetalcentre@nhs.net
Cardiac Nurse Specialists Manchester Children's 0161 701 0664		Cardiac Fetal Nurse Specialists Alder Hey 0151 252 5642

This alert and FMU reports should be sent to antenatal screening midwives and neonatal contacts at the booking hospital +/- intended place of delivery